- Governor’s Office of the Deaf & Hard of Hearing
- Governor’s Office of Performance Improvement

In June 2016, Maryland Governor Larry Hogan launched the Governor’s Customer Service Initiative to set a new standard across all state agencies that has transformed the culture of Maryland government and dramatically improved how we serve our fellow citizens, employers, and partners.

“The Marylanders expect the best possible customer service from their state government, and that is exactly what they deserve.” – Governor Larry Hogan

The Governor’s Coordinating Offices continues to promote and advance an excellent customer experience. All staff are required to attend formal customer service training. Our staff are trained to listen, learn, and implement new approaches based on the feedback we receive from Marylanders. We collect this feedback from various portals to include: events we host and participate in, surveys, written correspondence, one-on-one interactions with customers, councils and boards, as well as groups we facilitate. We use this feedback to strengthen programs and services, adjust strategies to meet the needs of our customers, improve processing times for back office operations, and streamline more efficient infrastructure through shared services. The results have generated improvement on delivering a better customer experience that aligns with Governor Hogan’s mission to continue Changing Maryland for the Better.

We are proud to share this Fiscal Year 2019 (FY19) Customer Service Annual Report to provide a consolidated view of the individual and collective progress made by each of the Governor’s Coordinating Offices, as we seek to improve the customer experience for all Marylanders.

Governor Larry Hogan
Governor’s Office of Crime Control and Prevention (GOCCP)

Handle with Care Maryland is a trauma-informed program designed to help children who are exposed to violence through seamless and careful communication and collaboration between law enforcement and schools. In addition to Governor Hogan directing Maryland to implement the program statewide, GOCCP has also launched the Handle with Care Maryland website to support those adopting the program with tools, answers to frequently asked questions, and trauma-informed guides for schools.

Finally, GOCCP social media engages all customers who follow with important, timely information including public safety services and resources.
Governor’s Office for Children (GOC)
The Governor’s Office for Children, now integrated within the Governor’s Office on Crime Control and Prevention, has customers to include staff and members of the Local Management Boards (LMBs), state agencies as well as the children, youth, and families of Maryland. The Governor’s Office for Children empowers LMBs serving each of the 24 jurisdictions in Maryland, to coordinate services bringing together local agencies, service providers, community organizations, and families to better serve Maryland’s youth.

The Governor’s Office for Children also delivers customer service by measuring conditions of well-being for Maryland’s children and families, then communicating that information through the Child Well-Being Scorecard that tracks 28 key performance indicators.

In addition to the indicators, the Office uses the Scorecard to track outcomes for the programs funded through the LMBs. This tool was developed utilizing Results-Based Accountability™ framework and data on the performance measures for each program assists LMBs in planning, decision-making, and budgeting based on desired results and outcome.

In FY 19, the Governor’s Office for Children awarded $19.6 million in grant funding to LMBs, and was selected for a second year by the National Governors Association as a “model state” for improving the well-being of children and families. The Governor’s Office for Children sponsored 361 events, a number of which were customer-focused, including:

- Monthly Local Management Board meetings
- Quarterly meetings with Local Care Team coordinators
- Results-Based Leadership Collaborative
- Racial equity training
- Board development training
- Training and technical assistance on evidence-based practices and model interventions

The Office for Children also continues to survey the 24 Local Management Boards to understand their needs as they serve their local communities. For example, in FY19, 94% found the trainings and technical assistance offered by the Office to be valuable.
Governor’s Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (GODHH)

The Governor’s Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing customers include the approximately 1.2 million Deaf and hard of hearing Marylanders and business owners. Governor’s Office of Performance Improvement (GOPI)

The Governor’s Office of Performance Improvement co-leads the Governor’s Customer Service Initiative for the State of Maryland. In FY19, the state received over 20,000 responses from Marylanders through the customer service survey. In addition, this Office created and employed new analytical tools to support the Initiative including topic analysis capability to allow state agencies to view the top reasons Marylanders are submitting customer service feedback; sentiment scoring so agencies can quickly see which topics score high or low for customer satisfaction with the goal of quickly taking corrective actions to improve customer service; and new mapping capability which reveals the zip codes customer surveys are coming from. Combined with the topic and sentiment analysis capabilities, the mapping capability enables state agencies to pinpoint what types of customer service improvements need to take place in specific jurisdictions. The following screenshot shows a word cloud visualization from the topic analysis tool showing the most common reasons customers are completing customer service surveys after an interaction with the Governor’s Coordinating Offices.

In FY19, the Governor’s Office of Performance Improvement helped to establish an enterprise business intelligence office within the Department of Information Technology, and a user group to empower state employees with analytical tools to drive decision making.

The Governor’s Office of Performance Improvement is on-call to any state agency in need of assistance for performance improvement to help implement back office systems that translate into improving the customer experience. This is accomplished through performance improvement workshops, performance reviews, and administering performance solutions.

The Governor’s Coordinating Offices also curates the Maryland Open Data Portal. Ranked as the #1 Open Data Portal in the Nation by the Center for Data Innovation, the Portal contains over 1,400 datasets of state and partner data available to the public.
Governor’s Office of Small, Minority & Women Business Affairs (GOSBA)

Maryland is home to over 580,000 small businesses. The Governor’s Office of Small, Minority & Women Business Affairs serves the entire small business community, including those firms owned by minorities, women, and veterans, and has direct oversight of three State procurement programs: Small Business Reserve, Minority Business Enterprise, and Veteran-Owned Small Business Enterprise.

Small business is the backbone of our economy, our office works diligently to make it easier to plan, start, manage, and grow a small business in Maryland. According to Thumbtack.com’s 2019 Small Business Friendliness Survey, Maryland received an A+ for ease of starting a business, and an A for overall friendliness.

In an effort to help firms compete with confidence, the Governor’s Office of Small, Minority & Women Business Affairs conducts a robust outreach and training program. Their signature event, Ready, Set, GROW! is held six times a year at locations around the state and draws an average of 80 entrepreneurs to each event. Two sessions of their Technical Training Classroom are held on the fourth Tuesday of every month (except December) drawing over 900 entrepreneurs annually. Online resources are also provided, connecting entrepreneurs with 24/7 access to vital information on financial/lending programs, networking and professional associations, and valuable business intelligence tools such as the annual procurement forecast.

Timely and Responsive

The Governor’s Customer Service Initiative includes the principles of timely and responsive service so this office works to exceed these goals with a performance target to respond to customer inquiries within 24 hours. The Governor’s Office of Small, Minority & Women Business Affairs receives a high volume of calls for 1-on-1 technical assistance that require lengthy conversations with business owners, and customer service is top of mind.

The Governor’s Office of Small, Minority & Women Business Affairs delivers an excellent customer experience, receiving a 97% satisfaction rating.
Feedback and Survey Results

Over 1,500 responses to the Governor’s Feedback Survey were provided to the Governor’s Coordinating Offices, an average of 12 per week. We utilize this feedback to improve products and services, and follow up with constituents on action items to provide excellent customer service. These efforts are reflected in the 93% satisfaction rating from the feedback received.
Communications and Social Media

The voice of the customer plays a central role as the Hogan Administration seeks active, meaningful, two-way communication among Marylanders, business owners, and the Governor’s Coordinating Offices for each of its’ seven unique divisions. Each office nurtures its own communications outlets, tailored for their specific audiences. The Governor’s Coordinating Offices Director of Communications leads the communications efforts across the offices with a team of communications outreach staff. This integrated approach ensures a unified message is communicated by and through all of the Coordinating Offices, consistent with Hogan Administration priorities seeking to help change Maryland for the better.

For example, in FY19, collaboration among several offices within the Governor’s Coordinating Offices and other state agencies was highlighted in social media posts (example right) to celebrate the 4000th unit of blight eliminated in Baltimore. This type of collaboration on communications helps to ensure that all Marylanders are proactively reached through multiple media channels to learn about Project CORE and how it impacts our neighborhoods, even across Maryland.

In addition, given the active digital landscape and its potential for influence, the Governor’s Coordinating Offices are proud to have engaged more than 400,000 followers on our websites, and on Facebook, with over 1.5 million impressions during FY19 - with an average of 33 shares every business day. In addition, the Governor’s Coordinating Offices maintains a unifying website that provides resources to Marylanders with links to all Coordinating Offices websites and news in one convenient place, to include the customer survey link. This website was also given a new, more user-friendly url (www.gco.maryland.gov). To provide consistent messaging to customers who interface with our staff on email, each of the Coordinating Offices communications directors monitor employee email signature contact and customer survey info for consistency and accuracy.

Finding many citizens who connect online, the Governor’s Coordinating Offices created a video now shared across all office YouTube and social media pages. This video outlines the Hogan Administration’s vision, purpose, and community involvement for the Governor’s Coordinating Offices. The Coordinating Offices are committed to providing Maryland citizens, businesses, stakeholders, and other customers with excellent customer service.
In FY19, the Governor’s Coordinating Offices has ramped up its video presence on social media, which has, in turn, engaged more customers. Here is a screen shot from just one example.
Social Media and Website Traffic Statistics

The Governor’s Coordinating Offices strive to deliver timely and consistent messaging through social media about its services, resources, events, and alerts. Communications professionals prepare targeted messages and use analytics to improve the consistency and timeliness of the customer experience.

The Governor's Coordinating Offices are attracting new Facebook followers to their pages every month by providing timely, consistent, valuable content about services, resources, and alerts.

The Governor's Coordinating Offices Facebook Pages statistics for FY19 demonstrate activity, reach, and engagement through social media.
